LEADERSHIP & WORK EXPERIENCE

Generational Canvas Inc. Non-Profit, NY~~~~ Founder/President

May 2024 - PRESENT www.generationalcanvas.org , alisaz@generationalcanvas.org

- Generational Canvas is an organization that specializes in gathering teens across NYC and providing service hour opportunities for them as they paint the elderly in senior homes. I created the legal non-profit structure for Generational Canvas in May of 2024 and was able to fully put it into effect in June of 2024. I hosted my first event on June first, and have been hosting events throughout since then. I am the one that calls all the homes, schedules events, runs the social media accounts, email possible donors, etc. I manage social media accounts as well.

Zusin Family Daycare, 323 3rd st~~~~ Art Teacher

February 2023 - PRESENT

- Worked for my parents daycare company caring for kids, and creating events relating to art to do with the kids. I've hosted multiple different events with the kids making a variety of different sensory paintings. I focused on teaching the kids how to express themselves in their art and spark some love for something that I started at their age.

Art League of Long Island, 107 E Deer Park Rd~~~~ Volunteer

December 2023- PRESENT

- Volunteered for the Art League for almost 6 months now, coming in once a week for 3 hours helping people who are new to the craft find their element, and find a love for ceramics just like I have. I helped clean in the studio as well, learning the behind the scenes to running a studio.

Laguardia Magazine, 100 Amsterdam Ave ~~~~~ Staff

September 2023- PRESENT

- Joined Laguardia Magazine in the beginning of my junior year, and have been an active member of the magazine since. I have multiple different works displayed throughout each issue.
